Processional ENTRANCE OF NURSES

Opening Hymn TUNE 646: PRAISE MY SOUL

1. Praise, my soul, the King of Heaven,
To His feet thy tribute bring;
Ransomed, healed, restored, forgiven,
Who like thee His praise should sing?
Praise Him!
Praise the everlasting King.

2. Praise Him for His grace and favour,
To our fathers in distress;
Praise Him still the same as ever,
Slow to chide and swift to bless;
Praise Him!
Glorious in His faithfulness.

3. Father-like He tends and spares us;
Well our feeble frame He knows,
In His hands He gently bears us,
Rescues us from all our foes.
Praise Him!
Widely as His mercy flows.

Florence Nightingale Pledge

I SOLEMNLY pledge myself before God and in the presence of this assembly to pass my life in purity and to practise my profession faithfully. I will abstain from whatever is deleterious and mischievous, and will not take or knowingly administer any harmful drugs. I will do all in my power to maintain and elevate the standard of my profession, and will hold in confidence all personal matters committed to my keeping, and all family affairs coming to my knowledge in the practice of my calling. With loyalty will I endeavor to aid the Physician in his work, and devote myself to the welfare of those committed to my care.

A Nurse's Prayer

Dear Son of God, great Healer and Physician,
Grant me to know Thy gentleness and skill
That I may bring the sick to know Thy healing,
And troubled hearts to find release from ill.

Dear Son of God, who stilled the troubled waters,
Lead me to know the calm of ordered ways,
Grant me the peace that passeth human knowledge,
And patient grace to meet the crowded days.

Dear Son of God, who deigned to be a Servant,
I, too, would serve with dignity and grace.
Humble in heart, but with exalted purpose,
Help me adorn the high or lowly place.

So may I strive with love and grace increasing,
My chosen task to worthily fulfil,
And as I tend the call of human needings,
My inward life would answer to Thy will.

—Colonel A. E. Dalzell
